

Business Traveller

May 30, 2017

HOTEL NEWS

IAN SCHRAGER is bringing his Public brand to New York this month. The 367-room hotel opens on Chrystie Street in Lower Manhattan on June 7. It has landscaped gardens, a restaurant headed up by Jean-Georges Vongerichten, a coffee shop-cum-grocery, a performance space, and three bars, including a rooftop venue with 360-degree views.

HYATT has opened the 211-room Hyatt Regency Amsterdam in the De Plantage district, south-east of Amsterdam Centraal station. It has a 24-hour gym and sauna, a restaurant and bar, and event space.

MARRIOTT INTERNATIONAL has launched a Moxy property at Frankfurt airport. The hotel has 305 rooms, a self-service food kiosk, meeting space and the brand's signature "Living Room" lounge.

HILTON has opened its largest ever Hampton by Hilton property. The new-build Hampton by Hilton Berlin City Centre Alexanderplatz has 344 rooms with free wifi and is located on the corner of Otto-Braun-Strasse and Mollstrasse.