

First look at the world's largest Hampton by Hilton at London Stansted

The hotel will open its doors in August

The world's largest Hampton by Hilton at London Stansted has opened its doors to the public today.

Essex Live has been given an exclusive look inside the luxury hotel, with over 300 rooms spread over seven-storeys, making it the largest in the world out of the 2,100 hotels owned by the chain.

Paolo Franchi, general manager of the new hotel, said: "The Hampton by Hilton London Stansted will be the perfect place for travellers to eat, drink or sleep either before or after their journey and will provide a fun and relaxed atmosphere for guests to kick back and relax during their stay.